THE MAPLE SETTING

We felt the stir of hall and street,
The pulse of life that round us beat;
The chill embargo of the snow
Was melted in the genial glow;
Wide swung again our ice-locked door,
And all the world was ours once more!
(John Greenleaf Whittier)

Dedication

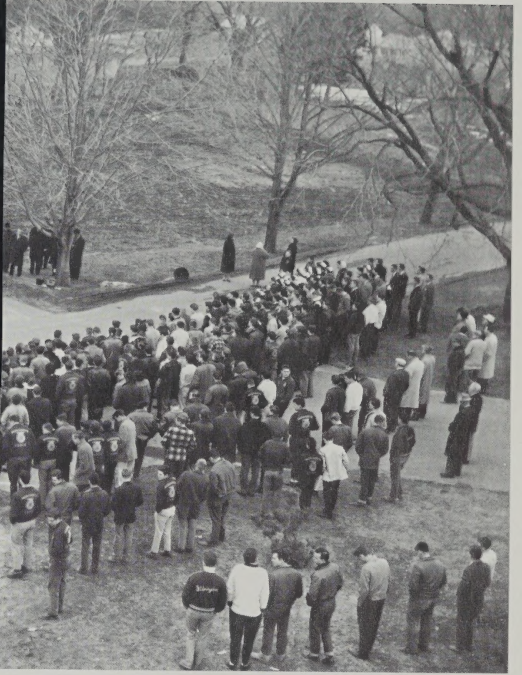

To Mr. Bennett the "Class of 1963" proudly dedicates The Maple. Mr. Bennett, who has been on the staff at Essex Aggie for the past seven years, is respected and beloved by all who know him. He is the librarian, here at Essex, but he also prepares juniors and seniors for college mathematics.

Mr. Bennett is always willing to take time out of his busy schedule to give advice, guidance, and assist students with any of their problems. He is advisor to the National Honor Society, and the Student Choral Group.

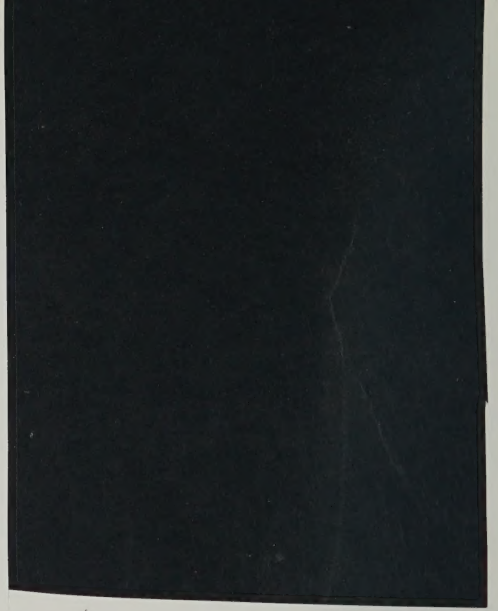

To him who has given so freely of his time, we offer our most sincere thanks.

SENIOR FLASHBACKS

GUESS WHO?

CLASS WILL

Roger Conant leaves to John Poirier his little red book, which contains names and phone numbers of all the best loan agencies.

To anyone in the junior class who can use them, Thomas DiNocco leaves his keys.

Cassie is the lucky recipient of Gil Fittons superior strength.

Jim Cassie is also left by Bil Gagnon his ability to get "F's" during basketball season.

Steve Birch leaves his best qualities and abilities to Yann Kaloustian.

His ability to run the projector is left by Bob Sterling to anyone in Junior Dairy.

To "Mouse" Orcutt, Bob White leaves his ability to get to school late.

Ricky Hartung is the lucky receiver of Rodney Banks ability to get caught at everything he does.

Richard Murray leaves his sneakers to Dave Smith. Dick also says, "I hope you have better luck with them than I did, Dave."

To my little friend Jimmy Cassie, I leave my forward spot in basketball and my ability to miss easy bunnies (Earle Carpenter).

Michael Clery leaves his ability to judge dairy cattle to Bob Albach.

Donald Robinson is also left the ability to talk his way out of speeding tickets with the cops by Brad Silsby.

Steven Downey leaves his great ability to get along good with Mr. Curtis to Al Downey, Skip Freitag and Gary Evans.

To anyone who wants it, Dot Jackman leaves her ability to blush at the wrong time.

To any poor, deserving underclassman, Cliff Bourne leaves his many months of work at the barn.

To my fellow underclassmen, I leave these words of wisdom. Take Heed boys! "Never underestimate the power of a women" (Marianne Red Mahoney).

Jim Lewis leaves his ability to find people who are giving things away.

To Ralph Boragine and Roger Cote, John DeFusco leaves his ability to get on the good side of a certain vegetable instructor.

Bruce Eisenhower leaves to Bill Robley my Fiat along with a thimble full of gas.

Bill Davis leaves his ability of not getting caught while fooling around in class to Donald Robinson.

Attention underclassmen! Frank Sworobowicz leaves his ability to get to work late.

Frank Militello leaves his ability to get caught fooling and get a Saturday to Jim Cassie.

To Donald Robenson, Earl Smith, Jr. leaves his ability to crack up cars.
 I, Fred Stafford, leave my ability to be track team rabbit to John Baldi.
 To his brother Philip, Richard Longo leaves his ability to cause trouble and not get caught.
 Sue Jackman leaves her ability to get along with Mr. Muldoon to little Murph, she'll need it.
 I leave my shirt to Bob Shaw in hope that he will fit into it better than I, and to Dave Nappi I leave my cleets and wish that they carry him to touchdowns and success. Ed Obdens.
 Nickolas Forbes leaves to Glen Hunt his ability to make excuses for not doing his homework.
 To Jerry Finn. Richard French leaves his ability to get into trouble and not get caught.
 I leave my love for Pentucket to John Peel. (Mrs.) Florence Hemmingway.
 To you Dave Smith, I leave my dynamic ability for racing, James Timmons.
 Stanley Kalishman leaves to Dick Nodstrum his ability to talk a lot.
 Jack Sample leaves his ability to wreck Chevys to Ricky Hartung.
 I, Harold Powell will to James Gaieski my veterinary ambitions and also my weak stomach.
 The ability to get out of Doc's class is left by John Spencer to any underclassman.
 I, Peter Wormstead, leave my ability to descend from a tree without using a taunt line hitch to Guy Darisse.
 John Sandlin is left Paul Walkers' ability to judge milk.
 George Hogan leaves his ability to fall asleep in class.
 Jim Sandlin leaves to John Medwid his ability to deliver fruit baskets.
 I, George Widfeldt leave my ability to forge notes to anyone who can get away with it.

CLASS PHOPHECY

What a reunion! Last night, all our old classmates got together to talk over old times. It was interesting to find out what they did with the training they received at the Aggie.

Mike Clery has a very successful herd of Purebred Guernsey cattle. He told me that Tommy DiNocco is the commanding officer of the First Armored Tank Division. Happy motoring Tom!

Bill Davis made a big splash in the dairy industry in Haverhill. He just began a new advertising campaign; selling "Davis Dainty Dairy Products!"

I met Roger Conant at the beginning of the party. He's taken Lloyd Bridges' place in "Sea Hunt" and is also working with his father part time.

It was no news that Ted Carpenter is playing for the Boston Celtics. He's right on the ball!

A roll on some bongos drew my attention and I turned to find a bearded Steve Bergendahl. He's a beat-nik artist from upper Greenwich Village. Cool man! Around Steve stood Bruce Eisenhower, Gil Fitton, and Dick French.

Bruce told me that he was running his own Florist's shop. Many Aggie students come to him for their corsages, because he specializes in corsages that don't break up!

Gil Fitton is a Forest Ranger in Washington State. He has been on television advertising bathing suits and Camels, "the man's cigarette."

Dick French is a part time stock car racer and a full-time manager of a golf club. Find those balls, caddies!

Howie Grohman told me that he is running a thriving landscaping business, and that he is also playing a little bit of semipro football.

Florence Hemingway is still making Paul happy. She's the proud mother of six children and is expecting her seventh in June.

Talking to Florence was Dot Jackman. She's also got six children, and is married to a famous fortuneteller. She always said that she wanted to explore the future!

Billy Kadlec, Brad Silsby, and Cliff Bourne were talking together, comparing notes about their business, farming.

Bill is the manager of Alfalfa Farm, and is much feared for his Grand Champion animals by other farmers all over the country.

Brad Silsby owns a large farm in Vermont, and has done much to advance the cause of the Holstein Breeding Association.

Cliff Bourne is running a farm in Dracut. He fulfilled the desire of every young farm hand; he bought his boss out of business!

Jimmy Lewis is an army mechanic. He spends the greater part of his time fixing up staff cars for speed-happy soldiers.

Dick Longo came to the party wearing a ten-gallon hat and cowboy boots. He bought out the famous King ranch and is using it for a dry-cow pasture!

Marianne Mahoney is still training race horses. She has several strings of her own racing all over the country. Watch out for those saddle sores!

Ed Obdens is teaching landscape gardening at Stockbridge. He's also the assistant coach for the University's football team.

Bill Rudd told me that he is the foreman of the Fruit department at the Aggie. He's still working under Mr. Kelly, and they spend most of their day trying to outtalk each other!

John Sample is a Private in the Army. He has been sent to Officers' Training School three times, but skipped out too often to graduate!

Jim Timmons has gone far! He's the Sergeant of the motor pool at Fort Knox. Keep honest kid!

Bobby White is managing his father's dairy. His slogan is, "From the Cow to You." To fulfill this, he is putting full house Pontiac engines into his milk trucks, and he has every policeman in Ipswich chasing him!

Ken Vatcher is the Essex County Commissioner. It's a strange thing; when he took control of the job, the number of people leaving the farm doubled!

Pete Wormstead is a Physical Education teacher. He also spends his summers teaching Geometry and water skiing.

Bob Stirling has his own trucking business. He's having trouble with the teamster's Union, because he insists on doing most of the driving himself!

John Difusco is working under Mr. Meuse at the Aggie. Two old friends finally got together again!

Steve Birch is a Corporal in the Army. Being the best dressed of the Senior Class, it was no surprise to see him wearing button down collars on his uniform shirts!

Two good buddies, Rodney Banks and Frank Militello, joined the Navy together. They worked their way up through the ranks and became officers. On the night of their appointment, they celebrated in the universal Navy manner, and are again working their way up through the ranks.

Jimmy Stathis, as you all know, is an excellent electrical engineer. He is famous for the wiring he laid out for Boston's answer to the Empire State Building, but last night he got in an argument with the janitor over the wiring in the school buildings!

Stanley Kalishman is still doing a booming business soaking people for corsages. He's made enough money to retire, but he's still doing it for the fun of it!

Earl Smith is a very important man in the Navy. He is the officer in charge of food procurement. In two years Earl has gained one hundred pounds!

Another serviceman is Harold Powell. He's in the K-9 Corps. It's a dog's life!

George Hogan is an Air Force navigator. He was late for the party because he got his signals crossed on a flight that afternoon!

John Spencer is just finishing college. He worked as a Government Page Boy for a few years to earn money for his tuition. What that must have done for politics!

Guess who's married! Susan Jackman! She's running a Florist shop with her husband, Jack Sample's cousin.

Fred Stafford is a math teacher at North Reading High. He's also giving Chemistry seminars at the University.

Steve Downey and Dick Murray are still at Stockbridge. Not as students, but as teachers! Can you imagine that?

Our old buddy, Frank ~~Serbo~~, ~~Swebor~~, Swet. Our old buddy Frank is doing well as a mechanic in Ipswich. I wonder how his sister Marie is doing?

Of course Jim Sandlin managed to talk his way through Purdue. He is a public relations man for a mathematical company. I hear he's thinking of going into politics.

Phil Gagnon is the top man in a steeple jack company. He's the one that paints the black ring around the top of the big chimneys!

Whatever any of my classmates set out to do in their later life, I am assured they will make a name for themselves. With the groundings given them at the Aggie, they will be able to compete with the best of men. I hope they realize the things I have said were all in fun. I wish every one the best of luck in their later life.

Sincerely,
Paul Walker

VARSITY BASKETBALL

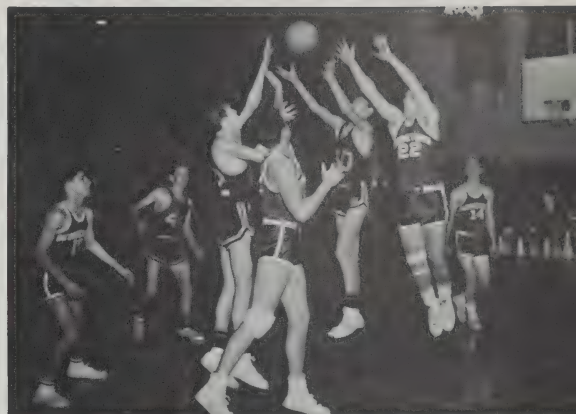

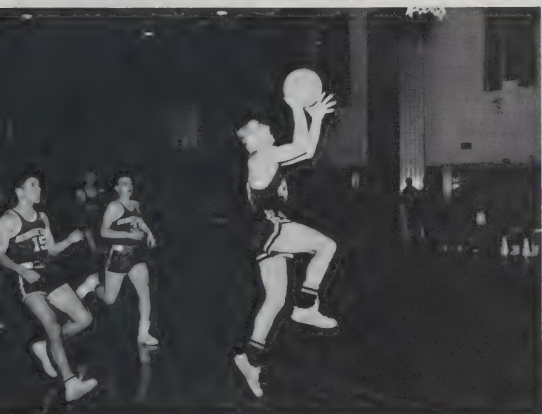

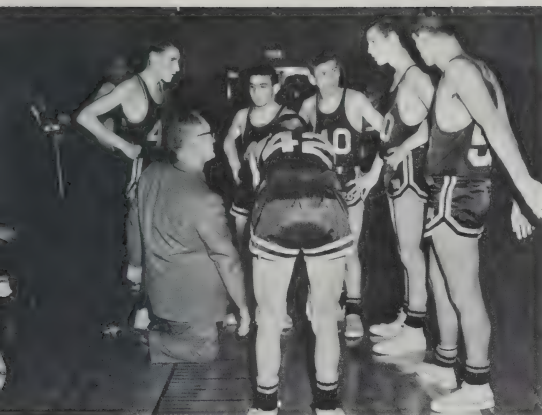

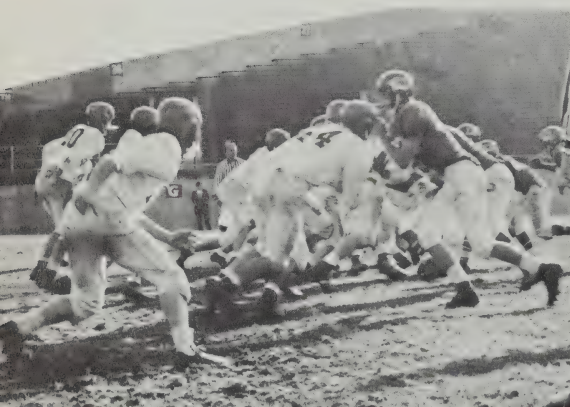

1st ROW: L. R.: Lynch, Murray, DeFusco, Carpenter, capt., Arthuszik, Boragine, Gagnon.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The 1962-63 season in athletics might well be described as the "year of the new gym." Although our teams were once again limited to few victories, the games were mostly close; and the excellent new facilities were appreciated by both the "Aggie" teams and the visitors.

The football team scored one victory over Cambridge School in a 14-12 thriller, which was the most exciting game since the introduction of eleven man football four years ago. Don Howe's 80 yard run in this contest was also the longest touchdown gallop by one of our players.

Coach Potter's forces were defeated in six other contests by teams composed of squads sometimes twice in number and often in size.

The basketball team won two games but was narrowly beaten in several other contests; in fact, many times during the season the team led at the half-time only to be worn down by the superior bench strength of the opposition.

Best Wishes to our departing senior athletes: DeFusco, Davis, Carpenter, Silsby, Obdens, Grohman, Murray, Gagnon.

CROSS COUNTRY

1st ROW L. R: Corthell, Provenzano, Carrien, Oullette, J. St. Pierre, LaFrenier. 2nd ROW: Murray, Gagnon, Stafford, DiNocco, Tupper, Baldi, Smith, D. Mr. Deacon, Coach.

F. F. A. WINNINGS 1962-63

This year's plant materials judging team placed first in the state. Members of the team were as follows: Ken Silvey, Stan Kalishman and John Coughlin.

Last fall at the Eastern States Exposition the Mass. dairy products team placed first in the six state region, with Robert White of Essex placing first. Robert White also judged at the National Contest in Waterloo.

Fruit team:

In the fall of 1962 the fruit team entered a contest at Amherst and placed second. Team members were Paul Provencher, Bill Rudd, John Shimanowski.

Livestock:

The livestock team placed second at Amherst in fall of '62." Team members were, John Baldi, Kendall Peterson, Lee Sanford.

Poultry:

The poultry team also placed second last fall. Bill Londerman, Ken Vatcher, and Kevin Keenan judged on this team.

Public Speaking:

Marianne Mahoney finished second in the statewide public speaking contest at Amherst in April 1962. Paul Walker won the tri-county public speaking contest at Bristol in March 1963.

To MR. ELLERY METCALF, our advisor and friend, best wishes for continued success in all your F.F.A. endeavors.
